

USGA RULES OF GOLF AND THE FOLLOWING LOCAL RULES GOVERN ALL PLAY

Out of Bounds: All boundary fences, the driving range, practice areas and walkway leading to the driving range and 1st tee.

Relief: Staked trees, protective screens and paved tee boxes. Interference occurs if the ball lies on the obstruction or the obstruction interferes with the player's stance or intended swing. Relief is granted by the player lifting and dropping the ball, without penalty, within one club-length of and not nearer the hole than the nearest point of relief.

Teeing Grounds: Teeing grounds designated by the course must be used for teeing off on all holes.

Grouping: Four persons are the maximum number that may play a hole at the same time.

Registration: Everyone on the course must be registered with the starter.

Slow Play: Slow players must allow faster players to play through.

Etiquette: Golf course etiquette must be observed at all times (replace divots, rake traps, repair green, etc).

Responsibility: Players are responsible for damage to surrounding area residents' real/personal property and bodily injury to other users of the golf course.

MAGGIE HATHAWAY GOLF COURSE

Maggie Hathaway Golf Course is more than a place to play. It's a shared space where the game brings together people across backgrounds, generations, and experience.

Named for Maggie Hathaway, a civic leader who believed public parks and recreation should be accessible to all, the course reflects a legacy of equity, care, and community pride.

As you play today, you're part of that story - where public land, great design, and neighborhood spirit meet on the same fairways.
